Don't You Think

it is a mighty convenient thing to be able to step into our store and buy custom-tailored clothes ready-to-wear, that will fit and satisfy you thoroughly? That is one reason why so many men who wish to be well dressed are today wearing

STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES

Another reason is because they cost about one-half less than the made-to-order clothes, require no special fitting and you need not wait for them—they're fit-to-wear the very day purchased.

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes are worn today by men of means, who could not be won back to the costly-to-measure-made habit by the most seductive offers—because no better clothes are made.

ALWAYS SATISFACTORY

THAT'S WHAT PEOPLE SAY OF THE WORK WE DO. It's because we use the best White Lead we can buy, absolutely pure linseed oil, only the most durable and expensive colors, and employ none but skilled workmen. The kind of painting we do costs a little more than some others charge, but it's "always satisfactory."

THERESA WILCOX WOULD BE A HAWAIIAN JOAN OF ARC

Princess Theresa Wilcox, widow of the Home Rule leader, who will organize Hawaiian women into a league to aid that Party.

Widow of Native Leader Will Organize All the Hawaiian Women in the Islands Into a Female Home Rule Party.

Mrs. Theresa Wilcox has decided to become the Joan of Arc of the Hawaiian race. To that end she will continue in politics and endeavor to bring the Home Rule party, the party of her late husband, into power.

It is the purpose of Mrs. Wilcox to immediately organize the Hawaiian women on all the islands into a political body to be known as the Hawaiian Women's Home Rule party. It will be a factor in influencing the votes of Hawaiians for whatever candidates may be put into the field at future elections. Mrs. Wilcox, however, reserving the right to back the best men for office put up by Home Rulers or Republicans.

This active woman politician will lose no time in setting about her task, and will begin with the island of Oahu, organizing the women first by districts and then subdividing the latter into precincts, each with its chairwoman. When the organization of Oahu is complete, Mrs. Wilcox will present the system, as a model, to the other islands. She is of the opinion that she will have no difficulty anywhere, and hopes to have several thousand women enrolled before the election campaign of next fall. Throughout her work of organization Mrs. Wilcox will make special efforts to show to the women and voters alike that during the campaign just ended she adhered strongly to the principle of electing the best men to office, by opposing certain nominations made by the Home Rulers and supporting, in the face of the determined opposition of the Home Rule party, several candidates on the Republican ticket.

To carry on the work of Robert W. Wilcox, "the idol of the Hawaiian people," as Mrs. Wilcox accredits the dead leader, is the plan, in a nutshell, of Mrs. Wilcox.

"My husband died from over-exertion in politics," said Mrs. Wilcox yesterday, "but I will carry on the work planned by Mr. Wilcox. He was literally compelled to make a vigorous campaign in the last election much against his own and my wishes, but he had to listen to the voice of the people. In fact it would not have been right for him to be deaf to the call, for the people centered their hopes in him as their idol."

"Knowing the feeling of the people toward my husband I am going right ahead in politics, and will organize the Hawaiian women all over the islands into an adjunct of the Home Rule party, to help the party in its future campaigns. I intend to organize them by districts and then subdivide these into precincts, each to have its own chairwoman. After completing the organization of Oahu I will organize the women on the other islands."

"Oh, I will be president, of course. They have already asked me to be at the head of the league. When my husband lay here in state, the women said to me, 'You have been to Washington with your husband, you know Mr. Wilcox's plans, and you understand politics, and we want you to be our leader.' I said, 'I don't know whether I can,' and they said, 'Oh, yes, you must.' As my husband always obeyed the voice of the people, so will I. He was like an idol to the people. They worshipped him. No matter whether he was very sick at home here they called him out to the meetings for they wanted him, but they always reserved him as the last speaker, and that made him ill. He was at the Home Rule headquarters every day, sitting in meetings from ten to three, missing his lunch, and then when he got it, it was at restaurants. He should have come home for his meals, but he said it was so far away that it took too much time.

"I have always been interested in politics, and have always endeavored to do what good I could for the Hawaiian people. During the last legislature I tried my best to have the Loan Bill passed."

"In all matters of politics I have an idea that in doing anything it must be done by united action and not by fighting. In union there is strength, but it must be a union for the best principles or the best men. When the Home Rulers nominated Charley Booth for treasurer I had an idea that Eddie Damon would be the better person, as his father knows all about financing, and he could be depended upon to give his advice to his son."

"I am for good, capable men in politics. I don't believe in putting up men of no account, because they are likely to get mixed up while in office, and that alone would discredit the party at the succeeding election. I think my ideas are generally right, and therefore I don't care to fight against my own views. After the candidates were in the field people asked me, 'Shall we all vote for Booth, or for Damon?' I said, 'Mr. Damon is my candidate, and he is a good, capable

ONLY A FEW.

Of the multitudes of people around us very few are really in good health. Most of them are victims to a greater or less extent of some disease. For a time nature holds her own, often with youth and ambition to help her; then the overtaxed organs break down, and the poisonous germs in the blood and tissues get in their deadly work. This may happen suddenly or slowly, but the result is the same. The number of people who are thus afflicted and handicapped is far beyond computation or estimate. In perhaps a majority of these cases the ailment arises from bad digestion, and is thereafter complicated with some form of dyspepsia. The ordinary treatment is seldom or never successful, and medical men now prescribe WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION with a view of purifying the blood and stimulating the vital organs into normal action. This effective and original remedy is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It should be resorted to on the earliest signs of ill-health, even if they do not at first seem serious or important. Dr. J. M. Guijosa says: "I prescribed your preparation for a young lady having a serious affection of the respiratory organs and from the first bottle she commenced to improve. After taking six bottles she was completely cured; she took it with pleasure which was not the case with other remedies that were tried but were found too repugnant to take." Every dose effective. One bottle convinces. "Impossible to be disappointed in it. Sold by chemists here and everywhere in the world."

man, and I advise you to vote for him," and they did," she added with a smile of triumph.

"I had to work awfully hard. In the latter part of the campaign, the Home Rule speakers praised Booth, and I had an idea he was going to win after all, but he didn't, and I believe, therefore, I had a hand in electing Damon. I told the people I had put up Damon and I intended to stand up for him, and I did the same for Hocking. As for Mr. Gilman I advocated him in my paper, 'The County,' before he was nominated by the Republicans. I have known Mr. Gilman a long time, and know him to be a capable business man. Atherton advanced him, and Atherton knew a business man when he saw one."

"One thing more. I never go back on my word. People here know that, if they will take the trouble to judge me aright. I don't stand entirely on party lines, but I am for good men."

MAUI HOME RULE ELECTION EXPENSES

Like their nomination papers, the statement of expenses by the Home Rule candidates for Maui came in neat and complete to Registrar Buckland. One statement was made for all of them upon two typewritten pages, and individual statements to correspond showed the proportion of the whole amount borne by each candidate. There was an excess of a dollar or two assumed by one candidate for a printing bill over the expenses of any other. Omitting dates the general statement is as follows:

Noa W. Alull, Republican candidate for county attorney, returned his expenses at $83, and W. T. Robinson, Republican candidate for county assessor, accounted for $209.

The Maui Home Rulers have shown that union is economy in their politics. Whether their solidarity in victory will mean economy for the county is a question to be determined.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects; and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous results. It is especially prized by mothers because it contains nothing injurious, and there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies. It always cures and cures quickly. THE Emancipation of Woman!

Within the last few months there have appeared in the daily papers throughout the country numerous accounts of young women resenting insults of the opposite sex in a masculine style that is to be highly commended. Women are beginning to realize their own powers. They are beginning to know themselves more thoroughly. They are drifting fast from the weakness and delicate sensitiveness which in the past was supposed to have been a part of their nature. The Athletic woman has now come to the fore. She is popular. She is admired and sought after by the more desirable marriageable men. Men are beginning to realize that marriage means the building of a home, and when they become thus seriously inclined, and understand that in selecting a wife they are also selecting the mother of their children, strength and health and other womanly characteristics assume vast importance.

The physical culture wave that is now sweeping America is beginning to fan Hawaii. It will teach women the true value of the powers they should possess. Physical culture in the form of athletics and gymnastics, will soon enable her to closely approach her brother in strength and agility. Any one can readily imagine the value to the future of the race of all this physical vigor. There is at present a crying need for healthy, sturdy mothers. The next generation of Honolulu will marvel at humanity being so perverse as to find anything admirable in a delicate sickly body. Any woman, no matter what her age might be, can regain her strength and vitality by attending the Woods Institute. My pupils are getting stronger every day.
